art!cultate #13

20 August 2007

My pick for this fortnight is the international digital art show on at The Block from 28 August. The Vernacular Terrain features over 45 of the world's leading new media artists, and has a distinctly Asia-Pacific flavour. Fresh from an exclusive preview exhibition Yokohama, Japan, the exhibition is at QUT for a few weeks before moving on to Beijing, China. The exhibition is free and open Tuesdays to Saturdays for the next few weeks – don't miss out!

Coming up: We're hosting an exclusive preview of Krome Studios' Hellboy: The Science of Evil at a free gaming day (R U Game?) on Saturday 8 September.

Check out www.ciprecinct.qut.com for the latest in what's on.

Cheers,
Alison
